

Contact: Eric Paulson for Texas Capital Bank
214.520.3590

TEXAS CAPITAL BANK CONTINUES GROWTH:
HIRES SIX NEW BANKERS IN DALLAS

DALLAS, (Nov. 23, 2009) – To accommodate its dynamic growth and strategic growth plan, Texas Capital Bank has made significant new hires in Dallas, adding six bankers to key lines of business.

Rob Delph has joined as executive vice president for commercial real estate. He was previously managing director at Societe Generale.

Jim LaFontaine joins from BBVA Compass Bank as senior vice president and relationship manager in the corporate banking group.

Randy Lasley is a new senior vice president and relationship manager for the Bank's business banking group. He joins from BBVA Compass where he was a relationship manager in commercial banking for 19 years.

Veronica Luna is now vice president and relationship manager for Association Services with Texas Capital Bank. She came from BB&T (formerly Colonial Bank), where she served as vice president for association services and relationship manager for North Texas.

Mary S. McCarthy joins as senior vice president and product manager for Treasury and Liquidity Solutions. She came from JPMorgan Chase where she held multiple product management positions.

John C. Rutledge is the senior vice president for business development in the Bank's Wealth Management & Trust group. A member of the Dallas Salesmanship Club, he was a financial consultant with RBC Wealth Management previously.

About Texas Capital Bank

Texas Capital Bank is a commercial bank that delivers highly personalized financial services to businesses and private clients. The Bank has $5.3 billion in assets and has full-service locations in Austin, Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston and San Antonio. It is the primary subsidiary of Texas Capital Bancshares (NASDAQ: TCBI), which is included in the Russell 2000® Index. For more information, visit www.texascapitalbank.com.

###