CLAY JETT JOINS TEXAS CAPITAL BANK

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 14, 2006 – Texas Capital Bank, the state’s premier business bank, has announced that Clay D. Jett has joined as executive vice president and manager of the bank’s corporate banking division in San Antonio.

He has been active for several years with the Greater San Antonio Chamber and the Texas Scholars Program. Jett is a San Antonio City Council appointed trustee to the South Texas Business Fund and the San Antonio Business Journal recognized him in 2005 as one of the “40 Under 40 Rising Stars” in the city.

“We are pleased to have someone with Clay’s business acumen and community leadership skills join Texas Capital Bank,” said Mark Johnson, president of the San Antonio region. “His understanding of the San Antonio business market brings added benefit to our customers along with his ability to help guide them with their financial needs.”

Jett joins Texas Capital Bank from JPMorgan Chase Bank N.A.
