TEXAS CAPITAL BANK PROMOTES JEFF MOTEN
EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

FORT WORTH (June 3, 2009) – Texas Capital Bank has announced that Jeff Moten has been promoted to executive vice president of Texas Capital Bank -- Fort Worth Region, where he is head of the Commercial Real Estate group.

Before joining the Bank in October 2005 as a senior vice president, Moten worked in the commercial and residential real estate industries in Fort Worth. He began his banking career in Fort Worth in 1986.

“For more than three years, Jeff has significantly grown the bank’s commercial real estate portfolio, as well as added a number of solid commercial customers,” said Mike Palmer, president of Texas Capital Bank, Fort Worth Region. “His promotion is well-deserved. He’s a true relationship banker and has added value to this Bank and we know he will continue to do so”

Moten is a 1986 graduate of Texas Christian University where he received a bachelor’s degree in finance.
