MARY LEWIS JOINS TEXAS CAPITAL BANK AS SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT

AUSTIN (April 30, 2009) – Texas Capital Bank has announced that it has hired experienced Austin banker Mary B. Lewis as senior vice president in the Treasury and Liquidity Solutions Group for the commercial bank’s Austin operations.

Lewis has been involved in Austin banking for several years. She served as a vice president in treasury services in the public sector at JP Morgan Chase and before that was a vice president with Bank One, also in treasury services.

Lewis earned her bachelor’s and master’s degrees in business administration from Florida Atlantic University.

“Texas Capital Bank is continuing to grow so we’re excited to have a banker with Mary’s expertise and experience join us,” said Kerry Hall, president of the Bank’s Austin region.
