

Contact: Eric Paulson for Texas Capital Bank
214.520.3590

TEXAS CAPITAL BANK ANNOUNCES FORT WORTH LEADERSHIP

Moten named president; Kromann promoted

DALLAS – Dec. 14, 2009 – Texas Capital Bank announced today that Jeff Moten has been promoted to Fort Worth Regional president. Barry Kromann, executive vice president, has also been promoted and will lead the Fort Worth region’s corporate and private client groups.

Moten joined Texas Capital Bank in 2005 and most recently served as executive vice president and head of the commercial real estate group. Prior to joining the bank, he worked in the commercial and residential real estate industries in Fort Worth. He is president of Colonial Country Club and The WARM Place, a local non-profit organization; a member of Leadership Fort Worth; and an avid golfer. He is a 1986 graduate of Texas Christian University where he received a bachelor’s in finance degree.

Kromann has been with Texas Capital Bank since its inception and has been a part of the Fort Worth banking community since 1987. He is a founding director and past president of the Tarrant County Bankers Association; past president of the Parenting Center; an advisory board member of Weaver & Tidwell, LLP; a member of Leadership Fort Worth; and was honored twice by the Fort Worth Business Press as one of its “40 Under 40” outstanding business leaders. He graduated summa cum laude with a bachelor’s in finance degree from Texas Tech University and is a deacon at McKinney Memorial Bible Church.

“Jeff and Barry are great partners and I am very confident in their ability to deliver long-term value for our clients and lead the exceptional team we have in Fort Worth,” said Keith Cargill, president and chief operating officer of Texas Capital Bank.

“Our Fort Worth bank works with some of the finest businesses in the city and I know they will continue to grow by building strategic relationships in the community and bringing more people into the organization who work well within our partnership-based culture,” said George Jones, CEO of Texas Capital Bank.

About Texas Capital Bank

Texas Capital Bank is a commercial bank that delivers highly personalized financial services to businesses and private clients. The Bank has $5.3 billion in assets and has full-service locations in Austin, Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston and San Antonio. It is the primary subsidiary of Texas Capital Bancshares (NASDAQ: TCBI), which is included in the Russell 2000® Index. For more information, visit www.texascapitalbank.com.

###