TEXAS CAPITAL BANKER IAN WRIGHT NAMED TO MORTGAGE BANKERS FUTURE LEADERS PROGRAM

DALLAS, Aug. 4, 2006 – Ian Wright of Texas Capital Bank is one of 41 selected from applicants nationwide to participate in the 2006 Future Leaders Program sponsored by the Mortgage Bankers Association (MBA). He also was one of three recipients of the Texas Mortgage Bankers Association’s James M. Wooten Scholarship program for the Future Leaders Program.

Wright is vice president of mortgage warehousing at Texas Capital Bank in Dallas.

“This is outstanding recognition for Ian and the leadership role he has now and will continue to have in the mortgage lending business. It also affirms that Texas Capital Bank has assembled the leading team of business bankers in the state,” said George Jones, president of Texas Capital Bank.

The Future Leaders Program is dedicated to identifying and cultivating the next generation of industry leaders by delivering a comprehensive leadership training experience for the selected participants, who must have between three and 15 years of experience in real estate finance and have demonstrated professional excellence and achievement.

Texas Capital Bank Banker Selected/2

Participants receive a strategic perspective on the future of the mortgage banking industry from industry leaders. At the MBA National Policy Conference, they study the federal legislative process and meet with their Congressional representatives. Working in teams, they develop a holistic approach to community economic development and its impact on housing and commercial development. Wright is assigned to a team developing a plan for a blighted section of Oakland, Calif.
