TEXAS CAPITAL BANK HIRES MIKE McCONNELL
Joins growing commercial banking operation

AUSTIN (Sept. 25, 2009) – Texas Capital Bank has hired Mike McConnell as senior vice president as part of its growth strategy for the Austin Region. He will be a relationship manager for the commercial banking operation.

“We continue to hire the best bankers we can find to accommodate our growth,” said Kerry Hall, president of Texas Capital Bank Austin Region. “Mike is a talented banker who knows how to build lasting banking relationships with customers, which is an important part of our Bank’s culture.”

McConnell joins from Guaranty Bank, where he was a senior vice president. He has more than 19 years of banking experience.

He earned his bachelor’s degree from Texas A&M University.
