TEXAS CAPITAL BANKER RICHARD ANDERSSSEN RECEIVES PRESIDENT'S SERVICE AWARD

DALLAS, August 18, 2006 – Richard (Rick) Anderssen will be one of the Dallas-Fort Worth area reserve police officers who will receive the prestigious President's Call to Service Award on Aug. 23 in Fort Worth for having provided more than 4,000 hours of volunteer service to the Dallas Police Department. Anderssen has served 21 years with the Dallas Police Reserve Battalion and holds the rank of Commander. He is senior vice president, corporate security director with Texas Capital Bank.

President George W. Bush created USA Freedom Corps (USAFC) to build on the countless acts of service, sacrifice, and generosity that followed September 11th. When he announced USAFC in his 2002 State of the Union Address, President Bush called on all Americans to serve a cause greater than themselves. The President's Call to Service Award was created to recognize outstanding volunteers who answered that call.
