TEXAS CAPITAL BANCSHARES ELECTS NEW BOARD MEMBER

DALLAS (January 30, 2006) – Texas Capital Bancshares (NASDAQ:TCBI), the parent company of Texas Capital Bank, announced today it has elected long-time Houston and Dallas businessman Larry L. Helm to its Board of Directors.

Mr. Helm currently serves as executive vice president and chief administrative officer of Houston-based Petrohawk Energy Corporation (NASDAQ: “Hawk”), a company engaged in the acquisition, development, production and exploration of natural gas and oil properties located in North America.

Prior to joining Petrohawk, Mr. Helm spent 14 years with Bank One, most notably as chairman and CEO of Bank One Dallas. During his tenure at Bank One, Mr. Helm also held a variety of executive-level positions, including: executive vice president- national head of Middle Market Banking; executive vice president-head of Dallas Commercial Banking; executive vice president-head of South Middle Market Region and executive vice president-national head of the Energy and Utilities Group.

“Larry is a seasoned financial executive with a vast knowledge of the banking industry,” said Jody Grant, chairman and CEO of Texas Capital Bancshares. “His long-standing reputation within the banking community combined with his high-level expertise and involvement across a wide range of projects makes him a great addition to our Board of Directors.”

Mr. Helm earned a bachelor’s degree in Business Administration from Trinity University in San Antonio and a M.B.A. in Banking and Finance from the University of North Texas.
