TEXAS CAPITAL BANK HIRES SIX COMMERCIAL AND PRIVATE CLIENT BANKERS IN Q1 2004

Dallas – May 14, 2004 – Texas Capital Bank announced today that it hired six commercial and private client bankers during the first quarter of 2004:

Mike Berryman – Senior Vice President, Private Client Group

Mr. Berryman brings 19 years of Dallas banking experience to Texas Capital Bank's Private Client Group, which focuses on the specialized needs of affluent business owners and executives. He joins us from Bank of Texas and will be located at our McKinney Avenue office in Dallas.

Gena Evans – Senior Vice President, Business Banking

Ms. Evans is the former president of Prosperity Bank's Abrams Centre location and is a 27 year banking veteran. She will be located in our LBJ and Midway office in Dallas.

Chip Glispin – Senior Vice President, Wealth Management & Trust Services

Mr. Glispin is a 20 year trust and investment veteran, and most recently worked with Bank One. Based out of our McKinney Avenue office in Dallas, he will provide services to clients throughout Texas.

Garry Marshall – Senior Vice President, Corporate Banking

Mr. Marshall brings 19 years of commercial banking experience to his role in Texas Capital's Corporate Banking Group. Mr. Marshall joins Texas Capital Bank from SouthTrust where he was a team leader with their commercial banking practice and will be located in our McKinney Avenue office in Dallas.

Jon Morgan - Vice President, Business Banking

Mr. Morgan joins Texas Capital's Plano office from SouthTrust Bank where he focused on the commercial market. He has 8 years of corporate banking experience and garnered community banking expertise having spent time working with his father, president of an Austin-based bank.

Mack Streeby – Senior Vice President, Corporate Banking (Fort Worth)

Mr. Streeby joins Mike Palmer's Fort Worth team with 23 years of banking expertise including 14 years with corporate banks and 9 years with community banks. Prior to Texas Capital Bank, he was president of Liberty National Bank in Granbury.
