

Contact: Eric Paulson for Texas Capital Bank
214.520.3590

NEW EXECUTIVE MANAGEMENT ALIGNMENT FOR TEXAS CAPITAL BANK – SAN ANTONIO

Mark M. Johnson rises to chairman;
Clay D. Jett promoted to president

SAN ANTONIO, (Dec. 8, 2009) – To accommodate its strategic growth plan, Texas Capital Bank has announced executive management promotions in San Antonio. Mark M. Johnson, current San Antonio Region president, has been named regional chairman, while Clay D. Jett has been promoted to regional president.

“This new leadership structure will help continue the dynamic growth that our San Antonio region has accomplished over the past 10 years,” said Keith Cargill, president and chief operating officer of Texas Capital Bank. “Mark will be a very active chairman who will continue to raise the Bank’s visibility and provide direction and supervision to the region, while Clay will take on more daily management responsibilities.”

Also, Laurie Griffith, executive vice president and manager of the region’s real estate lending group, will have additional responsibilities for management of the private client operations.

Johnson has been with Texas Capital Bank – San Antonio as region president since 2001 and as chairman will continue his responsibilities growing the asset base and building the team to support San Antonio’s growth. He currently serves as chairman of the Texas Tech University Rawls School of Business Advisory Council, a trustee for the Southwest Research Institute and has been very active with many local non-profit organizations and charitable causes, including the Alamo Area Council of Boy Scouts of America, Greater San Antonio Chamber of Commerce, San Antonio Zoological Society, San Antonio Stock Show and Rodeo, the Texas Business Hall of Fame and the Downtown Rotary club.

Jett was formerly executive vice president and manager of the Bank’s corporate banking division. He is active in the community and currently serves on the executive committee on the board of directors for the North San Antonio Chamber of Commerce, a director on the board of Family Service Association and as a trustee on the board for the San Antonio Local Development

Company, Inc., dba South Texas Business Fund. Jett is also active with many other local not-for-profit entities and is a member of the San Antonio Livestock and Exposition Junior Livestock Show Auction Committee. The San Antonio Business Journal recognized him in 2005 as one of the “40 Under 40 Rising Stars” in the city.

Griffith has been at Texas Capital Bank for 10 years, managing and growing the real estate division in San Antonio. She was recently elected chairman of the Friends of CHRISTUS Santa Rosa Foundation Board. Additionally, she is a member of various organizations including the UTSA College of Business Real Estate Finance and Development Founders Council; CREW-San Antonio; CCIM; and The Real Estate Council of San Antonio. She was the 2004 recipient of the prestigious Eva Rosow Award of Excellence.

“As Texas Capital Bank grows, it’s imperative that we broaden our leadership team to insure that the Bank’s vision and culture continue to be carried out with excellence,” said George Jones Jr., CEO of Texas Capital Bank. “Mark, Clay and Laurie are top-quality banking executives who have and will continue to realize our vision as the best business bank in Texas.”

About Texas Capital Bank

Texas Capital Bank is a commercial bank that delivers highly personalized financial services to businesses and private clients. The Bank has $5.3 billion in assets and has full-service locations in Austin, Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston and San Antonio. It is the primary subsidiary of Texas Capital Bancshares (NASDAQ: TCBI), which is included in the Russell 2000® Index. For more information, visit www.texascapitalbank.com.

###